

TO RUN LA FOLLETTE FOR GOVERNOR BRYAN AND STEVENSON NOTIFIED

HE WILL CARRY BADGER REPUBLICAN BANNER TO VICTORY IN NOVEMBER

No Voice of Discord In State Convention At Milwaukee Today---Entire Ticket Will be By Acclamation--- Gen. Bryant For Chairman.

Milwaukee, Aug. 8, 3:40 p. m.—[Special Telegram]—The committee on resolutions has been tied up at the Hotel Pfister since 2 o'clock and do not seem to be able to agree on a report.

It is hinted that a proposed Spooner resolution is the cause of the deadlock. The convention will not convene until the committee is ready to report which may not be until this evening.

La Follette and the present state officers will be nominated by acclamation.

At 4:10 the committee agreed to report a Spooner resolution.

Milwaukee, Aug. 8.—[Special Telegram]—At 12 o'clock noon today Chairman Treat of the republican state central committee called to order in the Exposition building the convention which will place Robert M. La Follette in nomination for governor.

The convention is made up of 1,067 delegates, a body of men not second in numerical strength among political conventions to the national republican convention.

State Chairman Treat introduced H. C. Adams of Madison as temporary chairman, who made a strong address on the issues of the campaign.

The usual committees were then appointed and an adjournment was taken until 3 o'clock.

District Caucuses Held

The first congressional caucus met at the Pfister Hotel. M. N. Littlejohn of Whitewater was proposed and elected as chairman and Harry Dickey of Racine acted as secretary; members state central committee, C. C. Giddin of Racine, and P. C. Wilder of Evansville were re-elected for two years; member of the committee on resolutions, Senator H. C. Martin, La Fayette; member of committee on permanent organizations, W. F. Carle of Janesville; chairman of the delegation, M. N. Littlejohn of Whitewater.

The fourth congressional district convention elected E. B. Simpson chairman of the meeting and Oscar Pierce as secretary; John Schartz of the Fifteenth ward was chosen a member of the committee on organization and Theodore Kronsage, Jr., member of the committee on resolutions.

H. K. Butterfield of Washington county was chosen chairman of the fifth district caucus; John F. Bruss, of Cedarburg was made secretary and without opposition Joseph G. End of Sheboygan county was made a member of the committee on resolutions.

J. O. Story of LaCrosse was chosen chairman of the seventh congressional district and George Cooper of Black River Falls was elected secretary. F. W. Miner of Eau Claire and Dr. W. T. Searles of Sparta were elected members of the state central committee; Walter D. Houser, of Mondovio, Buffalo county was elected to committee on resolutions.

The ninth congressional convention elected George P. Rossman of Ashland chairman, and I. R. Nye of Wittenberg secretary; Warren J. Davis of Marquette and Henry E. McEachern of Wausau were chosen members of the state committee. Nils P. Haugen was elected chairman of the tenth district; Nels M. Oscar of Bayfield was elected secretary; A. R. Hall was named as chairman of the committee on resolutions by acclamation and was loudly applauded as the hero from the Tenth.

No Contests for Seats.

One of the remarkable circumstances in connection with the meeting of the state convention today is the fact that there were no contests, a circumstance which speaks well for the harmony that exists in the ranks of the party when the fact is taken into consideration that the convention is made up of 1,067 delegates.

HARMONY AMONG REPUBLICANS

Not a Cloud on Horizon of the Milwaukee Convention

Milwaukee, Aug. 8.—The republican state convention meeting in the Exposition Building here this afternoon will nominate R. M. La Follette for governor and renominate the remainder of the state officials for a second term.

Three times has Mr. La Follette entered the gubernatorial race; twice he was defeated and now he wins in a walk, with everyone of those who were his opponents out of the field through voluntary retirement when they saw how the tide was running. Nothing but La Follette talk was to be heard about the lobby of the Pfister this morning, where the incoming delegates gathered and La Follette had his headquarters.

The preliminary gathering was not nearly as large as usual, but this means no lack of enthusiasm. It is due to three things—first, the lack of anything looking like a fight; second, the intense heat, and third, the fact that Wisconsin has an anti-pass law and free transportation to conventions is a thing of the past.

All day the politicians who foregathered at the Pfister stood around and discussed the new condition of things and mopped their brows in the meantime.

Old-Timers are Shelled.

There was nothing to fight over, laying aside the matter of a chairman of the state central committee, and that was so mild a contest as to prevent any vigorous action with the mercury loping near 98 in the shade. It was a curious and almost pathetic scene to see the old timers who in the past had been the "whole thing," and whose movements were watched with intense eagerness standing around today waiting to see what the "kids" intended to do.

Most of the stalwarts felt lonesome and looked it. For all that they took their medicine gamely and announced that they were with the majority. Mr. La Follette had won and now they were La Follette men, though not of the inner councils, just as they would have been for any other candidate who might be the nominee of the convention.

Here and there might be found a disgruntled politician who on the quiet gave voice to colorful predictions, but in the main their was shown the same enthusiasm for the success of the ticket that will be nominated today as is always felt.

Danger in Overconfidence

In some quarters reports were received of apathy due to a feeling that the republicans were so certain of carrying the state there was no need of hustling, but this, it was admitted, would disappear when the campaign once opened, and it was predicted on all sides that when the campaign was once opened it would be a record breaker.

There is no better campaigner than Mr. La Follette, and he has with him the young men of the party, who are quick to respond to a magnetic leader, and all agree it is safe to say that the state will be stirred up as it has not been for many years.

Among the old politicians in the city who will take an active interest in the convention are Isaac Stephenson, who heads the Marinette county delegation; Congressman Babcock, who is at the head of the Juneau county delegation; former Congressman Nils P. Haugen, former Congressman Cook, State Senators J. H. Stout, John Whitehead, DeWayne Stebbins and Senator Hatton, who so nearly defeated Congressman Minor for the nomination in the eighth district; Senator Harris and many others.

Former Opponents are Loyal

Senators Whitehead and Stebbins were gubernatorial candidates themselves until they voluntarily retired from the field when they found how strong the tide was running in the direction of Mr. La Follette. Both accept the situation good naturedly and predict victory and a good majority for the ticket which will be nominated today.

The convention will be a short affair in spite of a feeling that the delegates ought to remain two days in the city. There is nothing anywhere to cause friction. With the settlement of the state chairmanship the last possible disturbing element has been eliminated. The speech of H. C. Adams, the temporary chairman, will be short as will that of General Bryant in placing the name of Mr. La Follette in nomination. This will be about the only chance for oratory, and both Mr. La Follette and the remainder of the state officers will be nominated by acclamation.

Outline of the Platform.

The platform was given some consideration at the conference this morning. It will be of moderate length and will include the endorsement of the national and state administration, of the action of congress in placing the country on a gold basis, of the tariff and of expansion. The principal feature will be a plank pledging the party to the enactment of a primary election law.

The edict is a response to the memorial proposing to send the ministers to Tien Tsin. London, Aug. 8.—[Special Cablegram]—Parliament was prorogued today until October. The Queen's speech says the situation in Africa has not reached a conclusion but the invaders have been driven beyond the frontiers and the two capitals of the enemy and much of their territory has been occupied. As to China every effort is being made to punish "this unexampled crime."

MR. BRYAN'S TOPIC IS IMPERIALISM STEVENSON LAYS STRESS ON TRUSTS

Monster Gathering of Democrats at Indianapolis Today ---Speeches Made By the Silver Leaders--- Towne Withdraws From the Race.

Indianapolis, Aug. 8.—[Special Telegram]—William J. Bryan and Adlai E. Stevenson are trying this morning to keep cool and get rested against the notification ordeal of this afternoon. Some thousands of patriotic democrats are paying them the homage of careful imitation. The thermometer at 9 o'clock this morning stood at 89 and the day promises to be a scorcher.

Hunting on Every Hand

The city is ablaze with flags and banners of welcome. The appearance of posters expressing republican sentiments on billboards all over the city caused criticism of the local republican committees. This morning many of the posters had been destroyed and their places taken by larger ones displaying democratic campaign cries. The crowds are taxing the hotels to their capacity, and the greatest numbers will not arrive until noon. The railroads are counting on 50,000 visitors.

WILL BREAK THE NEWS

The stage is set ready for the big show. Congressman J. D. Richardson of Tennessee, who, as permanent chairman of the Kansas City convention, will break the news to Bryan, arrived this morning, accompanied by the only "Ike" Hill of Newark, Ohio, and Washington, D. C. Gov. Thomas of Colorado, who will whisper the secret to Mr. Stevenson, came with the candidates. Military Park has been brushed up for the occasion.

Mr. Bryan too, is ready for the big show. He is in first class health, ruddy faced and bright eyed and has been ev-ing his voice all day. He read his speech of acceptance and took about an hour to do it. When printed it will fill about one newspaper page. The space given to "imperialism" is as to the space given to other issues as sixteen to one.

Indiana democrats, judging by the crowds are in a mood to cheer frantically in spite of heat. With 50,000 of such in front of him and with himself in perfect training, if Mr. Bryan does not make an impression today it will be his own fault. Even the asphalt in the streets of Indianapolis exhibits a holy impressionable disposition.

AT LEAST 30,000 ASSEMBLED

At 1 o'clock this afternoon there was a general assembly of the clubs designated to act as escort for Bryan and Stevenson to Military park. At 1:30 o'clock the procession started and formed a parade through the principal streets. Reaching the park, an immense crowd, estimated to be at least 30,000 strong, was assembled.

Mayor Tarrant, representing the city, extended a welcome, after which Senator J. K. Jones, chairman of the national democratic committee, was called upon to preside over the meeting. James D. Richardson of Tennessee, who was permanent chairman of the Kansas City convention, then delivered an address, notifying Mr. Bryan of his nomination. Mr. Richardson confined himself principally to imperialism and trusts and concluded as follows:

Richardson Notifies Bryan

Congressman J. D. Richardson then notified Mr. Bryan of his nomination at Kansas City. He devoted the best part of his address to a denunciation of imperialism and concluded as follows:

Large standing armies have no place in our republic. Imperialism can only be maintained by brute force, and without militarism imperialism cannot exist. The union or mating of two brings forth Caesarism, whether under that or some other name. Imperialism means death to democracy and republicanism; it means more swords and few ploughshares. Militarism means death to self-government and more spurs and fewer guiding hooks. In this battle we will make the fight thickest and hottest upon this monster imperialism which always feeds on the lifeblood of liberty. The cause you represent, sir, is humanity. The just punishment of a people that enslave and rule over another people is loss of their own liberty, for a democracy cannot be an empire and remain such.

The platform also declares unending warfare in nation, state and city against trusts and private monopolies in every form. This declaration means that the laws now on the statute books against this growing evil must be enforced by honest and competent officials and that there shall be enacted other laws sufficient enough to completely govern and control all trusts and monopolies.

We know that we can, with entire confidence make appeal to the people for our country's rescue in this hour of her peril. We appeal to all who loathe imperialism and venerate our constitution. We appeal to all who despise militarism and love liberty. We appeal to all who oppose war taxes in time of peace and other increase of taxes and who favor a just system of revenue collection and all who in every way, oppose unequal taxation.

We appeal to all who favor our hitherto free institutions and an equal opportunity for all under the law. We appeal to all who are willing to oppose the ever increasing oppression and robbery of the trusts and monopolies. We appeal to all who are opposed to the criminal legislation for forcible annexation and who do not favor to have our flag with its protecting arms over the Zulu slaves and Oriental harem. We appeal in short to all patriots and lovers of liberty regardless of past party affiliations, to enlist in our cause and help us triumphantly to bear our burden.

Speech by Mr. Bryan

Mr. Bryan's entire speech was devoted to imperialism and denunciation of the McKinley policy. He concluded as follows:

There is an easy, honest, honorable solution of the Philippine question. It is set forth in the democratic platform and it is submitted with confidence to the American people. This plan I unreservedly endorse. If elected, I shall convene congress in extraordinary session as soon as I am inaugurated and recommend an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose, first, to establish a stable form of government in the Philippine islands, just as we are now establishing a stable form of government in Cuba; second, to give independence to the Philippines just as we have promised to give independence to the Cubans; third, to protect the Philippines from outside interference while they work out the form of their government, and to be the republics of Central and South America and are, by the Monroe doctrine, pledged to protect Cuba. An European protectorate often results in the exploitation of the ward by the guardian. An American protectorate gives to the nation protected the advantage of our strength, without making it the victim of our greed.

For three-quarters of a century the Monroe doctrine has been a shield to neighboring republics and yet it has imposed no pecuniary burden upon us. After the Filipinos had aided us in the war against Spain, we could not honorably turn them over to their former masters; we could not leave them to be the victims of the ambitious designs of European nations, and since we do not desire to make them a part of us or to hold them as subjects, we propose the only alternative, namely to give them independence and guard them against molestation from without.

Concerns National Destiny

I can conceive of a national destiny surpassing the glories of the present and the past—a destiny which meets the responsibilities of today and measures up to the possibilities of the future. Behold a republic, resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountain of eternal truth—a republic applying in practice and proclaiming to the world the self-evident proposition that all men are created equal; that they are endowed with inalienable rights; that governments are instituted among men to secure these rights; and that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed.

Behold a republic in which civil and religious liberty stimulate all to earnest endeavor and in which the law restrains every hand, up lifted for a neighbor's injury—a republic in which every citizen is a sovereign, but in which no one cares to wear a crown. Behold a republic standing erect while empires all around are bowed beneath the weight of their own armaments—a republic whose flag is loved while other flags are only feared.

Behold a republic increasing in population in wealth, in strength and influence, solving the problems of civilization and hastening the coming of an universal brotherhood—a republic which shakes thrones and dissolves aristocracies by its silent example and gives light and inspiration to those who sit in darkness. Behold a republic gradually but surely becoming the supreme moral factor in the world's progress and the accepted arbiter of the world's disputes—a republic whose history, like the path of the just, "is the shining light that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

HIGH TEMPERATURE HELPS THE CROPS

THIS IS ESPECIALLY FINE WEATHER FOR CORN.

Hail Reported From a Few Places But the Damage Was Slight—Barley Practically All Cut and Stacked Tobacco Continues to Make Good Progress.

The average temperature for the state was about six degrees higher than that of last week, and ranged from seventy-eight degrees along the western border to sixty-eight degrees over the northern counties. The earlier part of the week was generally cool, but during the last three days extremely high temperatures occurred in all parts of the state, the daily maximum ranging generally above ninety-five degrees, especially over the southern and western counties. On Sunday the temperature at Milwaukee reached ninety-six degrees which was the highest during the season.

The rainfall for the week was generally light, except in the extreme northwestern counties and in a few localities in the central and southern counties, where heavy local storms occurred. Hail is reported from a few localities, but the damage done was not great.

The week has been very favorable for corn. The light and frequent showers early in the week kept the soil moist, and the high temperatures during the latter part of the week caused a remarkably rapid and hardy growth. In some sections the growth has been so rapid as to weaken the stalks, and even moderate winds have blown down a considerable amount. Generally the crop is in excellent condition and gives promise of a large yield.

Barley is practically all cut and stacked. The latter part of the week was favorable for harvesting oats, and most of the crop is in the shock. There is considerable complaint of rust. The crop is light, the straw short and the quality of the grain rather inferior.

Hay is now generally completed, except second growth clover which has made excellent growth and promises to be a large crop.

Pastures are in good condition and are furnishing an abundance of feed. Tobacco continues to make good progress. Some damage done by hail in a few localities.

The appearance of the pea louse in Kewaunee and Manitowoc counties has been a serious blow to the industry in that section. Many fields are reported to be totally destroyed, and nearly all have sustained more or less injury.

The apple crop will be only fair. The fruit continues to fall badly and the quality is inferior.

Cranberries are reported to be in good condition. Blackberries are plentiful and quality good.

A Pretty Compliment to Senator Spooner

Washington Correspondent New York Tribune: Senator Spooner of Wisconsin is one of the most eloquent men in the upper house, inimitable on the stump and credited with being able to do about as he pleases with his audience. A friend and admirer who has known the senator from boyhood is authority for the following story:

Some years ago when taking part in a symposium in the northern part of the state Senator Spooner was making an impassioned appeal to his audience, in the midst of which the master of ceremonies touched him on the shoulder and, pointing to the clock, indicated that his time had expired. Quick as a flash a woman rose from her seat and mounting a chair in front of the clock threw her shawl over its face, amid the laughter and cheers of the audience and to the dismay of the master of ceremonies. It is doubtful if Senator Spooner ever received a prettier compliment.

SHIRT WAIST MAN IS TURNED DOWN

NOT ALLOWED TO DINE AT THE AUDITORIUM IN CHICAGO.

Manager Tripp Gives the Would Be Dude a Good Dressing Down—The Craze Is Spreading All Over the Country But Does Not Find Much Favor.

Chicago, August 8.—Stuyvesant French of New York tried the masculine shirt waist on the head waiter of the Auditorium yesterday and was relegated to the grillroom for no better reason than that supplied by Manager C. E. Tripp of the hotel, who, addressing Mr. French, said:

"My dear sir, we don't care what sort of a shirt you wear, but in good Chicago dining rooms you must wear a coat, your shirt or waist is cream colored, your trousers are like unskimmed milk and your shoes are as snow. I want to treat you white, but the ladies who saw you in the dining room this morning demanded that you either put on your coat or go and play golf. It is not a question of precedent, but of popular demand. You are the first male person who has attempted to spring the shirt in this hostelry."

"You have not made a hit. A majority of the guests are again you. They want to know whether you wear hats and whether your stockings stay up without a mechanical contrivance. The easiest way for you to avoid a scandal is to take your meals in the grillroom."

Stuyvesant French went to the grillroom in his shirt waist sleeves, but is indignant—utterly indignant, because—says he—he was absolutely all right at Bar Harbor when he left there ten days ago.

Deputy Coroner Riedy has a shirt waist too. It is said to be cut low in the corsage with fluffy sleeves and embonpoint embrasures. The deputy walked into Judge Brennan's court wearing it yesterday, and those present became as peninsulas—long necks reaching out to see. At that the new garment came nearer making "a hit" in the criminal court building than it did at the Auditorium.

The shirt waist has descended upon the University of Chicago, and is endorsed by leading members of the faculty. Yesterday Charles Stewart, a graduate student, attended one of his classes without a coat. His negligee shirt was pulled out fore and aft and his trousers had no visible means of support other than a belt. Prof. Zeublin said:

"In two years it will be as common for a man to wear a shirt without a coat as it is for a woman to wear a shirt waist without a jacket. People nowadays are sensible enough not to be hampered by the dictates of fashion, and there are enough sensible people to retain a sensible garment which once comes into use without paying attention to the jeers of popular prejudice. It is the unfortunate tendency of all classes to pattern their clothes after the rich, who have money enough to follow every caprice of fashion."

Prof. A. C. Miller of the department of political economy was the first member of the faculty to take up the shirt waist fad.

The owners are apparently determined to close their doors if the men are not satisfied with the terms offered. The men will walk out next Monday morning unless amicable relations are in the meantime established.

WISCONSIN BANKERS TO MEET

AN EXTRA CAR ON MAIN STREET LINE

The Hot Season Increases the Travel On the Street Railway—Also New Transfer Facilities.

On account of the large number of patrons who take advantage of one fare for the round trip given by the Janesville street railroad company, and in order that all may ride without being crowded, Supt. Hurd has decided to put on an extra car on the Main street and cemetery line beginning this morning at 7 o'clock and continuing every evening as long as the patronage demands it. Transfers will also be given on any line going in any direction. Heretofore transfers were given on the Main street and Forest Park lines to the cemetery line, but hereafter transfers can be secured to any line.

BRYAN CONFIDENT.

WON'T CONCEDE A STATE TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Notwithstanding That Lending Democratic Papers Have Repudiated
Him—Tillman and Croker as Ex-ponents of Human Rights.

When the Montana state delegation, which was the first to greet Mr. Bryan, routed him out at 1.30 a. m., he made his first speech. He said: "I shall not concede them a state this year, not even Vermont. It is only a question which state in the Union will give the largest Democratic majority." He certainly has supreme confidence in himself, but I wonder if he reads the Democratic papers of the east. The New York Times repudiates him entirely. The Brooklyn Eagle does the same and calls him "a Thespian dreamer, who is also a fanatical egotist." The Hartford Times, the leading Democratic paper in Connecticut, says: "Bryan is not a Democrat, never was a Democrat and apparently intends never to be one. He is a Populist and a Socialist, and has the enthusiastic support of Populists who are not in the pay of Republican bosses." The New Haven Register agrees with it, and says there is the same kind of harmony that existed between the lady and the tiger when they returned from their ride, but didn't say which of the two is in the lead. And there are others. So it seems that, as in the last campaign, there is still "the enemy's country." It is a curious situation, Bryan insisting on 16 to 1 and all the states of most importance against it.

The Hon. George Fred Williams, in his speech at Kansas City, said, "God's benediction was almost heard spoken aloud in our deliberation yesterday." Yes, almost. That was when it seemed as though 16 to 1 would be defeated. Henry Ward Beecher once said, "There are some ministers who can give the exact latitude and longitude of God." Perhaps the presence of Tillman, Altgeld and Dick Croker was the cause of its being only almost. What a subject for a cartoon! Tillman, that barbarian from South Carolina, reading the platform demanding Filipino independence! His kind of independence for the Filipinos would be just like his for the negro.

The last Democratic platform insisted on the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 "because the money question is paramount to all others." The platform also claimed that "the demonetization of silver in 1873 has resulted in the fall of the prices of commodities, has led to the prostration of industries and the impoverishment of the people." Who thinks so now? Also "that federal judges have been guilty of a new and highly dangerous form of oppression," because they enjoined persons from obstructing the movement of cars carrying the mails of the United States during the Debs Chicago riots.

The late riots in St. Louis and the lawless acts committed there, the stripping of the clothes from women who rode in boycotted cars, would seem to any law abiding citizen to call for some power to stop such outrages. No decent workman thinks anything else. Sober minded citizens are in favor of law and order, and the people who join in riots are far from being fit citizens of a republic. The political party that offers a plank which encourages riot doesn't represent the best thought of the people.

The new platform is, as usual, entirely one of opposition to every Republican policy. The questions that have come to the front since the last campaign are seeking solution and will need the best effort of the highest minded and most level headed men in the nation. They are now questions and cannot be solved offhand by some political stump speaker. What a lot is heard about the rights of man from people who confound rights with license! What regard for the rights of man have Croker and Tillman? Their kind of right is all wrong. The foreign policy of this government is in the hands of those who have always been on the side of liberty and justice. The 1,400 schoolteachers from Cuba now at Harvard college have no fear of any fall designs on their island by this country, and when the Filipino understands rightly our intentions he will also lose his fear. Perhaps those people who have so much sympathy with the Filipinos don't know that we could not possibly escape a fight with them.

The Filipino junta at Hongkong ordered Aguinaldo to help the American drive out the Spanish and then to drive the Americans out. The junta prepared instructions and in the middle of January, 1899, warned their friends in Manila to leave, saying the time was near at hand. The United States government has documents in Aguinaldo's handwriting, including his plans for a rising in Manila last October, when he detailed the methods to be employed in assassinating the Americans. And this is the man who has been compared to George Washington! The party that freed the negro can be better trusted to deal fairly with the Filipino than the party that flourishes the Declaration of Independence in one hand and crushes the negro with the other. Four years from now all these questions will have been settled by the same party which has so successfully settled all the important questions of the last 40 years, and by that time the Democratic party will have for a candidate one who, if differed from, will be a servant and not a dictator.—H. S. B. in Buffalo Enquirer.

Serve His Purpose.

The Nebraska colonel-orator's ideas concerning the Philippines are about as clear as his ideas about finance, both being more serviceable for campaign purposes than as a working basis for government.

Two Men Flee; Both Fall Dead.

Pensacola, Fla., Aug. 8.—A duel in which both participants were killed took place at Grand Ridge, Jackson county, this state, Monday. A negro desperado named Washington, who was wanted by the authorities for several offenses, had armed himself and swaggered through the town during the forenoon defying arrest, when Kelly Sullivan, a private citizen, volunteered to arrest him. A warrant was placed in Sullivan's hands, whereupon he approached the negro, when the latter drew his pistol and fired. Sullivan, anticipating the negro's intention, also drew and fired. Both shots, which were nearly simultaneous, took effect. Both men fell and shortly thereafter expired.

High Speed in a Railroad.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 8.—The cigar-shaped train invented by Frederick Adams and generally known as "the wind-splitter," beat all records between Philadelphia and Baltimore when the run was made from Chestnut station to this city in one hour and forty minutes. At times a speed was maintained of eighty-two miles an hour. It was 5.30 p. m. when the "wind-splitter" started. It overtook the Royal Blue limited, which had gone out twenty-three minutes earlier, and had to slow down, losing several minutes. The engine which drew the "wind-splitter" was of the fifty-five-ton type, while the Royal Blue engine was twenty-five tons heavier.

Bessemer Works to Close.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 8.—A special to the Dispatch from Cleveland says that all the Bessemer iron blast furnaces in the country, with two exceptions, will go out of blast on Sept. 1. The decision was reached at a meeting just held in this city. The drop in the price of the product and the condition of the market is the cause of the action.

About 8,000 men will be affected. The Brown-Hill and Andrews-Hitchcock furnaces will not shut down.

Prince Prefers California.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 8.—Prince Eui Wha, second son of the king of Korea, who is in this city, has decided to remain here indefinitely. He came to this country in charge of Sin Ta Moon, second secretary of the Korean legation at Washington, who was to take the young prince to Roanoke, Va., for the completion of his education.

The prince, however, has decided to stay in California and attend the universities of this state.

Amos Cummings Taken.

Poplar Bluff, Mo., Aug. 8.—Amos Cummings, a notorious outlaw who has served a sentence in the penitentiary for murder, was disarmed and arrested at Hendricks, near here, last night by J. L. Bandy, a telegraph operator. Cummings had terrorized the village since Sunday, driving the inhabitants in doors at the point of a revolver and a Winchester and preventing church services from being held.

SENATOR PALMER SPEAKS

Chicago Times-Herald.—John M. Palmer will vote for McKinley, not because he is in accord with the principles of the republican party but because there is no ticket representative of the democracy as he defines it. The principles of the real democracy, to which the aged ex-senator is as devoted as ever, were thus succinctly stated by him in an interview at Springfield last Saturday:

To pledge equal and exact justice to all members whatever creed and condition; to give the largest freedom to the individual consistent with good government; to preserve the federal government in its constitutional vigor and the states to all their just rights; to the practice of economy in the public expenditure, the maintenance of the public faith, opposition to paternalism and all class legislation.

Mr. Palmer regards Bryan as the high priest of populism, which has grown "strong enough to menace the best interest of a safe government." He scoffs at the cry of imperialism as a "false alarm" in which no one believes, for no one believes that McKinley or any of his followers are believers in imperialism.

He pertinently asks, "Pray, what would Mr. Bryan have this country do with the islands?" And there is no answer from Lincoln except the echo of the question, "What?"

There is a whole volume of sound, patriotic sense in his four-word tribute to McKinley:

"He is not flighty."

The American people will never elect to the presidency a man who is "flighty."

The Hon. James M. Beck of Philadelphia, one of the leading lawyers of that city, announces that "I am no longer a democrat. I don't believe in free silver nor do I believe in hauling down the flag in the Philippines."

Chicago packers are working on a government order for two million pounds of meat. The famous "army beef" is apparently in demand despite the howl made against it by tin soldiers.

If President Earling doesn't believe our statement that his railroad reaches Janesville, let him come up here, and we'll show him where he spent his money.

The state convention at Milwaukee also La Follette today.

"If you see it in The Gazette it is new and true."

TO NAME LA FOLLETTE FOR GOVERNOR

which Mr. La Follette has been urging for some years. This favors nomination of state officers by direct vote of the people, doing away with state conventions. The tax commission will be indorsed. There will be a trust plank, and probably the lobby will be given a touching-up as in the platform of two years ago.

May Not Mention Spooner
The actual work of drafting the resolutions is in the hands of Walter Houser and A. G. Zimmerman, the latter Mr. La Follette's law partner, while Mr. La Follette himself is supervising the details.

At this time it is undecided whether Senator Spooner will be mentioned, but his friends can see no good reason why he should not be. They would be pleased, no doubt, with a word or two of regret at the determination of the senator to retire from Congress at the end of his term, but it is doubtful if anything of this kind will be thought necessary by those who are entrusted with the preparation of the platform.

The old state central committee held its last meeting last evening and passed on the credentials of the delegates. After this had been finished the committee held a little love feast in which every member had something pleasant to say of Chairman Treat, and in the end a resolution embodying these expressions was passed by the committee, after which it adjourned. It is certain that the new committee will be radically changed, as new men will be elected in almost every district.

GEN. BRYANT WILL BE CHAIRMAN

LaFollette Promptly Settles the Much Vexed Question.

Milwaukee, Wis., August 8.—Robert M. La Follette, who will be nominated for governor by the republican convention this afternoon, proved himself a master in the game of politics. He stemmed what threatened to be a bitter fight over the chairmanship of the state central committee in a matter highly satisfactory to all of the contending factions.

The new chairman will be General George E. Bryant of Madison, who for years has been the political godfather of Mr. La Follette.

The choice was made at a conference of the state officers, Mr. La Follette and the friends of the other candidates. There was not an element of the party in the state that was not represented at the conference and all agreed that the selection of General Bryant would do more to harmonize the party than any other man who could be named for this place.

The persistency with which some of Mr. Babcock's supporters pushed the candidacy of E. L. Philip for the chairmanship lent color to the story which was freely circulated that Mr. Babcock was attempting to get control of the organization. This, too, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Philip repeatedly denied that he was a candidate. The fight soon got into position of all other elements in the state joining hands to defeat any attempt to give Babcock control.

At the conference Mr. La Follette stated that some agreement should be reached on the chairmanship of the state central committee. He named all who have been mentioned in connection with the office, but declined to express a preference.

There was a free discussion and the opinion was general that Mr. La Follette was entitled to a man at the head of the state committee in whom he had confidence and whose loyalty to him had been tried. Isaac Stephenson, H. N. Cook and others plainly indicated that they thought that General Bryant would be the man to harmonize all factions. Congressman Babcock said so far as he was concerned General Bryant would be all right. He said he believed that Mr. La Follette should express a preference.

The conference adjourned with the understanding that General Bryant should be tendered the place.

San Domingo's Prime Minister.
Swift Wright, formerly editor and proprietor of the Daily Journal of Logansport, Ind., is now prime minister to President Jimenez of San Domingo. Wright was a first lieutenant in the recruiting service prior to the Cuban war. He was in Cuba when Jimenez organized the revolution and went with the general to San Domingo. It is said the Jimenez owes much of his success to Wright's fertility of resource.

United States Population 77,000,000.
The English statistician Mulhall makes an estimate of 76,200,000 as the population of the United States this year. The late General Francis A. Walker estimated it at about 75,000,000, and his present successor as president of the institute of technology, Professor Prichett, made an estimate in 1891 that the 1900 figures would be 77,472,000. The actuary of the treasury department expects the total to reach 77,000,000.

Mexico Wants Standard Time.
Mexico is considering the advisability of adopting a standard system of reckoning time. At present Mexico has an official time, computed at the capital and telegraphed to various parts of the republic. That time differs from Greenwich six and one-half hours. It is the time adopted by the railroads and telegraph lines, but in many parts of Mexico, especially in places not in telegraphic communication with the rest of the world, local time prevails.

FILIPINOS HATE AMERICAN TROOPS

STANDING ARMY MAY BE NEEDED TO KEEP THEM DOWN.

W. H. Gooden Who Has Seen Service Both in Cuba and the Philippines Returns Home to Janesville—Says He Has Got All the Army Experience He Wants.

W. H. Gooden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gooden of 51 Bluff street, has returned home, after serving three years in the 21st United States infantry. During three years of service in the United States army, Mr. Gooden has been fighting both in Cuba and the Philippines.

In Cuba he was in the battle of Santiago July 12 and 13, 1898. This, he says, was one of the warmest engagements he took part in. After leaving Cuba the regiment was transferred to the Philippines, where he has been stationed since May 11, 1899. He took part in the night attack on Calamba, Luzon on the night of October 20, 1899, and in numerous small expeditions; and later his regiment was transferred to Manila and from there on the boys had an easier time.

Mr. Gooden says that there is just as much fighting going on now in the islands as there was at first, only that there are no large bands. The natives are in small bands called Ladroneas, and even now the soldiers cannot go over four miles out of Manila without getting into a big fight. They are only small bodies of natives and will not attack our troops unless they greatly outnumber them and think they have a sure thing of it.

When they see they are likely to be captured they hide their arms and claim to be friendly, but as soon as released they get their arms back and start off on another fighting expedition.

Mr. Gooden said that the natives hated the Americans more than they did the Spaniards, and that the United States would always have to maintain a standing army of considerable size to keep the natives under control.

Mr. Gooden enlisted in the United States army as a member of the 21st infantry band at the Plattsburgh barracks on Lake Champlain, June 17, 1897, and was discharged at Manila, June 17, 1900, having completed his three years of service, during which time he rose to the rank of corporal. They left Manila on a transport on July 1, and were twenty-nine days on the trip to San Francisco.

When they left Manila the thermometer was 120 in the shade and after being out on the ocean eighteen days they encountered a severe snow storm from which many of the soldiers took cold. Mr. Gooden left Manila in perfect health, but the snow storm, change of climate and water rather got the best of him and he is feeling rather weak, but expects to be all right in a few days. He said that he has had all the army experience that he wished for and will try some other occupation in the future.

BROKE A SIDE ROD ON ENGINE NO. 550

Watertown Accommodation on the Northwestern Road Due Here 7:30 Was Late This Morning.

The passenger train known as the Watertown accommodation, on the Chicago & Northwestern road, due here at 7:30 a. m., did not arrive until 9:45. The Chicago passengers were transferred to the 10:10 Chicago train which arrived from the north soon after the delayed train.

The delay was caused by the breaking of a side rod on the left side of engine No. 550, which was pulling the passenger. It occurred at the Rock River bridge three miles south of Watertown, Wis.

The train left Watertown this morning on time in charge of Conductor Frank Brown and Engineer W. H. Brazzell; all went well until the bridge across Rock River south of Watertown was reached, when without warning the heavy side rod broke and flying around like a huge flail demolished the front of the cab, the running board, and some parts of the machinery before the engine, which was running at a high rate of speed, could be stopped.

Engineer Brazzell disconnected the broken rod and working one side of the engine, took the train to the nearest station, where another engine was wired for. The engine on the way freight was at once dispatched to the scene, and brought the disabled engine to this city. It was a fortunate escape from a serious accident, as the engine and train might easily have been thrown from the track by the broken rod, had not Engineer Brazzell succeeded in stopping the train at once.

TO MANUFACTURE LIME AND CEMENT

CHICAGO PARTIES NEGOTIATING FOR ROCK COUNTY FARM.

Thomas Pratt Who Owns Valuable Quarries About Two Miles North of the City Is Asked to Sell—Big Industrial Plant Is In Prospect.

A corporation for the purpose of manufacturing lime, cement and all the necessities of the business, may soon be formed in this city.

Thomas Pratt, who owns valuable quarries about three miles north of the city on the river, has had a proposition made him by Chicago parties, for the sale of his farm or a portion thereof on which the quarries are located.

The object of the Chicago parties is to establish a plant, build kilns and manufacture lime and cement upon a large scale. The contract with Mr. Pratt calls for the formation of a company with a capital stock of not less than eight thousand dollars, not more than two thousand eight hundred of which must be fully paid in.

If upon inspection by the experts sent here to examine the quarries by the members of the proposed corporation, the quarries are found to be what is wanted, the corporation is to be formed at once. The only thing which would hinder the consummation of the deal being the suitability of the quarries for the purpose sought.

This is not the first time that an offer has been made to Mr. Pratt for the quarries owned by him. Not long since a party of Chicago capitalists looked over the ground and offered $10,000 for the farm which has ten acres of lime rock on it. Mr. Pratt considers the land of much greater value and thinks the present offer a much more advantageous one for him.

The farm is located on the river road about three miles north of the city and runs back to the C. M. & St. P. railroad on the east. It is the intention of the corporation if the deal is consummated to ask the railroad to put in a siding or a switch down to the quarry. The amount of business the new corporation expects to do, when once in operation makes it imperative that they have good shipping facilities.

The offices of the company will be located in this city and a large force of men will be constantly employed at the quarry. Mr. Pratt is confident that the quarries will come up to the requirements of the company as kilns were in use at the quarries for a number of years and the stone was found to be of superior quality for making lime.

It is hoped the new corporation will be a good asset to be a valuable addition to Janesville's numerous industries.

HOT WEATHER TO BEAT THE RECORD

Still No Prospect of Relief in Sight—May Continue for Four or Five Days More.

Sweltering in a maximum temperature of ninety three degrees, and with no prospect of relief, in sight, Janesville faces every prospect for making a record for protracted hot weather not equaled in ten years.

In 1892 there were five days—July 23 to 27 inclusive—during which the temperature ranged from ninety one to ninety four degrees. Yesterday was the fourth day of the present heated term. With today the record of 1892 will be equalled, and if the heat continues, as promised, the hot wave of eight years ago will have to take a back seat. So far as a high range of temperature is concerned the present term is above that of July, 1892, with an average of ninety-three and one-half degrees, as against ninety-two and two-fifths degrees for 1892.

The maximum yesterday was ninety-three degrees, the same as Monday.

A Real Novelty

A novelty of any kind is thoroughly appreciated, but more especially so in the amusement line, of which there are few. The one that enjoys the distinction of possessing really more novelty and interest features is Gentry's world's greatest trained animal show, which exhibits in this city under a tent Monday, Aug. 13.

The entire performance is given by two hundred dogs, ponies, monkeys and elephants, all of whom are famous for their intelligence. They have been educated to a wonderful degree of intelligence by Prof. Gentry, who is known the world over as a most successful trainer of animals. The prices of admission for this high class moral and instructive entertainment are decidedly reasonable.

FIFIELD CHOSEN TO CAPTAIN THE TEAM

BUCKLETON LINKS GOLFERS READY FOR THE MATCH.

Minneapolis Experts Will Be On the Grounds Tomorrow to Try Conclusions With the Local Men—Second Round in Hart Medal Contest Yesterday Afternoon.

At a meeting of the members of the team, at the club house of the St. Louis Golf club last evening, F. E. Fifield was chosen to captain the team which will meet the Minneapolis team, from Minneapolis, on the local course tomorrow. It will be a great honor to Mr. Fifield, and every member of the club should the home team succeed in defeating the visitors in tomorrow's match.

There is some uncertainty as to the number of men the Minneapolis team will bring, their telegram saying from ten to twelve, and a letter received later stating from ten to fifteen. The home team will be selected by Captain Fifield from the following players:

Albert Schuller, F. E. Fifield, J. P. Baker, H. G. Carter, O. Sutherland, S. D. Tallman, F. E. Fehlin, C. P. McLean, Harry Kiekland, A. M. Valentine.

Fred J. Baker, one of the club's strongest players, is out of the city and should he return in time he will undoubtedly be on the team.

The visiting team is expected to arrive on the vestibule on the C. & N. W. railroad tomorrow morning. They will be taken to one of the hotels for breakfast and later to the grounds for play for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the course.

Every effort is being made by the green committee to have the grounds in perfect condition and they were never better than at present. The club is anxious to show the visitors a first class course and one worthy of their best efforts. Should they loose it will not be said it was because the course was in bad shape.

In the events of the golf links yesterday, Mrs. C. L. Fifield won the semi-finals in the ladies' match for the Valentine medal, against Mrs. W. A. Jackson, 2 up 1 to play. Both ladies played scratch. The finals in this match will be played next Tuesday, the contestants being Mrs. C. L. Valentine and Mrs. F. E. Fifield.

The second round in the gentlemen's match for the Hart medal resulted in victories for Sam Echlin, George Brownell, Harry McNamara and Ed. Peterson. Sam Echlin, handicap 18, defeated Frank H. Jackson, scratch, 3 up 2 to play. George Brownell, 10, defeated Frank McNamara, 10, 7 up 6 to play. Harry McNamara, 6, defeated H. J. Cunningham, 14, 7 up 5 to play, and Ed. Peterson, 10, won from H. Ross King, 7 up 3 to play. The next round in this match will be the semi-finals and will also be played next Tuesday.

FIGHT AT PEI TSANG WAS DESPERATE

AN EYE WITNESS GIVES A GOOD DESCRIPTION.

Great Britain Suspected of Violating Agreement With China—Celestials Have Concentrated An Enormous Force Around Pekin—Fierce Resistance to Allied Army Is Expected.

Chefoo, Aug. 8.—A second courier for Hearst's Chicago American has arrived here with the following additional report of Sunday's battle:

Shanghai, Aug. 7.—Your second courier from Tien Tsin has arrived at Chefoo, whence he sends the following:

"Left Tien Tsin Sunday, 11 a. m. Allies gained great victory over Chinese and Boxer forces at Pei Tsang, where determined attempt made by Chinese to check the advance north.

"Country on east side of Pei Ho has been flooded, but not thoroughly.

"Advance begun by Americans and the British, who took the west side of the river, and the Russians and Japanese, who took the east side. The latter were greatly hampered by the flooding of the lowlands.

"The march was begun at daybreak Saturday morning, 17,000 troops of all nationalities going forward.

"Large bodies of Chinese were met late Saturday afternoon, who fired a few shots with Mausers and small cannon and then retreated.

"Camp was broke at midnight Saturday by a preconcerted plan, and a rapid march made north.

"By 2 a. m. Sunday the troops reached a bridge that spans the Pei Ho, where a terrific fire was opened upon them by the heavy guns of the Chinese and a steady rifle fire that killed and wounded many of the allies.

"The Americans and British, on the west bank, made the better progress, and the Fourteenth regiment, with Major Reilly's battery in support and two Mausers of the British, pushed forward and engaged the enemy at close range.

"The Chinese fought bravely enough but were in great masses, and, therefore, the shells of the allies tore great holes in their ranks as they exploded.

"Until broad daylight the allies advanced with great steadiness, facing a galling and destructive fire.

"Hundreds of Russians and Japanese, both of whom acted with the greatest coolness and bravery, were killed and wounded and the road on the west side of the river back to Tientsin is filled with trains of the suffering wounded.

"The American marines and the British captured a large number of Chinese.

"Cossacks among the Russian force were for putting them to death, but the Americans protested and they were sent to the rear.

"The American Ninth, so badly cut up at Tientsin, were in the lead at 7 a. m. and did some magnificent fighting shoulder to shoulder with the British, jumping the trenches of the Chinese and bayoneting them by the hundred.

"There must be at least 4,000 Chinese killed.

"I am afraid to make an estimate of the number of casualties among the allies. It will probably reach a thousand, killed and wounded.

"When I left the battle was still in progress, though not with the fierceness that characterized it early in the morning, the Chinese in many places throwing down their arms and running away. Many of them were armed with spears and great knives and actually faced volley from the rifles of the allies with only the steel of their antiquated weapons.

"Some of the shells of the allies set fire to houses in the town and the flames spread, making the enemy good marks as they moved in the darkness between the allies and the fire.

"The Japanese suffered more than any of the other, but never once wavered.

"At 7 o'clock the Chinese lines began to waver, in face of the allies' storm of shrapnel and shell and determined charges by troop after troop of the trained soldiers, and as I left they had begun to retreat through Pei Tsang and up the river.

"It is reported as I finish this that the commander of the Japanese was killed and the Russians lost fourteen of their officers, the latter in a hand-to-hand battle in the Chinese trenches.

"There is hardly any doubt that the allies have demoralized the Chinese, and that Pei Tsang will be occupied successfully by the allies."

CLASH OF POWERS.

Great Britain Suspected of Violating Agreement Regarding China.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—The foreign office admits that serious differences have broken out between the powers with reference to the advance itself and to the measures that are being taken in the Yang-tse valley. Germany's opinion regarding the steps Great Britain has taken in the Yang-tse region has been expressed through the Cologne Gazette. The opinion is one of disapproval of steps taken already or contemplated, inasmuch as Germany, with a number of the other powers, is as much interested as England in keeping the Yang-tse valley open for commerce. The foreign office believes that in this particular all the powers except England are agreed. It does not believe that England would insist upon carrying things with a high hand there, now that she knows she is opposed by all the other powers. The foreign office is confident that the United States and Japan will side with Germany, and the other European powers, against England with reference to her apparent intentions along the Yang-tse-Kiang.

MESSAGE FROM CONGER.

Col. Meade Receives One Wrapped in Pigskin.

New York, Aug. 8.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser, from Shanghai, says that Col. Meade of the marine corps has received by native courier a message wrapped in pigskin signed by Minister Conger as follows:

"Help at once if at all. Besieged in British legation. No government Pekin except military chiefs, who are determined on destruction of foreigners."

The Shanghai correspondent also says that in the papers of the viceroy at Tientsin was found a receipt for 100 taels paid to the Boxers for the head of Maj. Waller of the United States marines, who was killed at the first battle of Tientsin.

The Rev. Dr. Evans, an English missionary, searched the yamen of the Tientsin viceroy and found in his private papers full accounts of the doings of the foreign forces during the siege, with lists of their killed and wounded. He also found promises of pensions to the families of all slain Boxers.

He found receipts for arms and ammunition from each village. This is proof of the official nature of the Boxer movement, and also of the treachery of some one in the ranks of the allies.

The Chinese left 5,000,000 taels in the treasury at Tientsin.

From a trustworthy native source it is learned that Gen. Ma was murdered by a Boxer. There are 30,000 troops at Tangsun, under Gen. Sung; 40,000 at Peitsang, under Gen. Tung-Full-Siang; 40,000 at Pekin already and more arriving daily, and 60,000 in camp 20 miles west of Tientsin.

PIERCE RESISTANCE EXPECTED.

Chinese Have Concentrated An Enormous Force Near Pekin.

New York, Aug. 8.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says:

"The correspondent of the Express at Tientsin believes that the advance of the allied troops on the capital will be strongly resisted, the time consumed in international conferences having enabled the Chinese to concentrate an enormous force.

"The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail reports that there has been great friction among the allies as to the appointment of a commander-in-chief. Gen. MacArthur has, it is stated, been put forward for the place by the Americans, while an unofficial Paris telegram says that Gen. Voynon, the commander of the French expeditionary corps, has actually been appointed."

KILL 3,000 CHINESE.

London, Aug. 8.—The Russians who have been fighting around Tassukau are reported, according to a dispatch from Shanghai, dated Aug. 6, to have killed 3,000 Chinese.

The tactical of Newchwang has refused the Russian demand to give up the forts there.

Australian Marines Sail.

Sydney, Aug. 8.—The New South Wales naval contingent, consisting of 250 marines, sailed for China on the transport Salamis. A large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed the departure of the men.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended, and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I.

KRUGER MAY SURRENDER.

Pretoria Advises Aver His Willingness to Stop Strife.

PRESIDENT STEYN IS ILL.

Lord Roberts Reports That Harrimith Surrendered August 4—War Loan Subscribed in England—Republics May Be Annexed.

Pretoria, Aug. 8.—It is stated positively that President Kruger is willing and anxious to surrender, provided a satisfactory promise is given as to his ultimate destination.

Harrimith Has Surrendered.

London, Aug. 8.—Lord Roberts reports to the war office, under date of Pretoria, Aug. 6, as follows:

"Harrimith surrendered on Aug. 4. The neighboring country seems to be quiet. Kitchener is with the force south of the Vaal river. He was joined yesterday by a strong detachment of Brabant's horse and the Canadian regiment.

"The Boers attacked the garrison at Elands river on the morning of Aug. 4. Information was sent to Carrington, who was on the way to Elands river. Ian Hamilton, who reached Rustenburg yesterday, reported hearing heavy firing in the direction of Elands river.

"Today the firing seems more distant, which looks as if the Elands river garrison had been relieved and was retreating toward Zerkus."

Steyn Seriously Ill.

Kronstadt, Aug. 8.—President Steyn is seriously ill. Commandant Theron, who commanded the Boer flying patrol that detailed last week near Honigspruit the train carrying United States Consul Stowe and flying the stars and stripes, has suffered a loss of three killed and ten severely wounded in a rear guard action near Kronstadt with the Malta mounted infantry. The British sustained no losses.

Firing on Stowe's Mistake.

Pretoria, Aug. 8.—Additional details regarding the attack of the train bearing Mr. Stowe show that twenty-seven bullets traversed his compartment.

Louis Sharp, an American accompanying Mr. Stowe, was shot through the foot. Theron, whom Mr. Stowe hastily sought, expressed sorrow for the act, maintaining that it was due to a mistake. The Boers put Mr. Stowe's carriage back on the line.

Republics to Be Annexed.

London, Aug. 8.—The secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Chamberlain, in reply to a question in the house of commons, said he had already made himself acquainted with the views of Canada and Australia in regard to the main points of the South African settlement. He added that they were completely in accord with her majesty's government as to the necessity for the annexation of Orange Free State and the Transvaal to the British Empire and the establishment of a government, supported by a military force, with the ultimate extension of representative self-government.

War Loan Subscribed.

London, Aug. 8.—In the house of commons Benjamin Louis Cohen, conservative member of the east division of Islington, asked the chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the reason for the early closing of subscriptions for exchequer bonds. The chancellor said the lists were closed as soon as the bonds had been subscribed for. He had received an offer from an Anglo-American house to place half the issue in America on the same conditions as issued here. This, he added, assured the success of the loan.

Deaths Away His Daughter.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 8.—The most unique deed ever offered in the clerk's office in Monroe county was filed with the real-estate transfers. By its terms, legally correct, John A. Cannon, party of the first part, gave to Eva C. Simpson, party of the second part, in consideration of $1, the person of Florence E. Cannon, 4 years old, daughter of the party of the first part, to hold said Florence till her majority, etc., with all legal minutiae. The party of the second part is the child's grandmother. Cannon was arrested some time ago for non-support of his motherless children.

Lyons Wins with Broken Arm.

New York, Aug. 8.—Harry Lyons of Chicago got the decision over Willie Fitzgerald of Brooklyn after twenty-five rounds of fighting, at the Coney Island Sporting club, but he also received a broken arm and a lot of lacerations. The trouble began in the eleventh round, when Lyons broke his right arm and began to fight very foul. Time after time the referee cautioned Lyons and told him to stop his dirty tactics. In spite of this Lyons repeatedly violated the rules, but toward the last the fighting was cleaner and the rounds more evenly contested.

PRETTY GIRL IN THE PLOT.

Emma Quazzi, Innocent Victim of Conspiracy Against Humbert.

New York, Aug. 8.—The arrest in Rome of Marie Gasse in connection with the plot to kill King Humbert, and an alleged confession from her, causes the belief that she is probably the girl who was known in Paterson, N. J., as Emma Quazzi and who lived for a long time in Paterson. Her father still lives there, and says that undoubtedly the girl mentioned in the cablegram is his daughter Emma. This conclusion does not rest altogether upon the judgment of Mr. Quazzi. He has evidence in the form of a letter written by the girl on May 28, and mailed at a later date in Italy. In this letter Emma Quazzi says that she met a nice young man on the steamer named Gaetano Bresci. She speaks of the fact that Bresci had worked in Paterson, and that it was strange she had not met him there. According to further statements in the letter, the young girl had been for eight days in close companionship with Bresci at the date of writing. She planned for months her trip to Europe, but her father insists her only purpose in going was to see her mother and brothers in Italy. Quazzi says he is sure it was a mere coincidence that brought the girl and Bresci together on the steamer on the way across the Atlantic.

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement."

"We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."—J. F. Duff, Princeton, Mo.

SSS is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find the appetite improves at once, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals whatever. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.

MAY LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS

MacArthur Negotiates for Surrender of Central Luzon Filipinos.

THE TALE OF THE JUNTA.

Offer Made to Give Up Aguinaldo on Certain Conditions—More Troops May Be Necessary to Suppress an Aggressive Band Near Cayan.

Hongkong, Aug. 8.—Manila advices to the Filipino Junta assert that Military Governor MacArthur of the Philippines and Gen. Alejandrino, leading rebel commander are negotiating for the surrender, under the amnesty proclamation, of the insurgent forces in central Luzon. These rebel forces include those under Cols. Lucana and Tesson, who last Wednesday captured Lieut. Alister of the engineer corps and eleven cavalymen.

Diligent inquiries at army headquarters in Manila failed to confirm the report of any such negotiations on foot. It is known, however, that Gen. MacArthur has been in constant conference with the rebel politicians and military leaders with the object of bringing about peace otherwise than by fighting. On Sunday last Gen. MacArthur, with an escort of officers, went to San Francisco and met Alejandrino at a conference which had previously been arranged. According to the Filipinos, Gen. Alejandrino then made his offer to surrender the central Luzon rebel commands, and also to produce Aguinaldo under certain conditions which were not made public. The result of this conference is not known. At its conclusion Gen. Alejandrino returned to the mountains.

Manila, July 13, via San Francisco, Aug. 8.—The insurgents in the vicinity of Cayan, on the island of Mindanao, are growing so troublesome that it may become necessary to augment the United States force stationed there by a body of troops from some other station. The insurgents, numbering, it is estimated, about 1,000 in all, are fortifying the mountain passes and otherwise preparing to give battle to our soldiers. Only recently a detachment, under the command of Captain Miller of the Fortieth Infantry, had an exciting and bloody experience with the natives near Agusan, about ten miles from Cayan.

Aeronaut Drops to Death.

Holland, Mich., Aug. 8.—John Drew of Grand Rapids, Mich., an aeronaut 19 years old, was instantly killed at Macatawa, Mich., while trying to make a parachute drop into Lake Michigan. Great crowds on both sides of the bay witnessed the ascent of the balloon to a height of 500 or 600 feet, and all agree that when Drew cut the parachute loose it became twisted or momentarily entangled, and the sudden fall unclasped his hands from the trapeze bar, to which he had neglected to attach his safety belt. He struck in shallow water in Black lake, two rods from Macatawa shore, and was dead when his body was recovered by the life-saving crew. His ribs were crushed and the body otherwise bruised.

Whipped Beyond Bible Limit.

Trenton, Mo., Aug. 8.—Edward Spencer, a prominent farmer, was in a justice court found guilty of beating his wife and was sentenced to jail and to pay a fine. The prosecution was forced by Spencer's neighbors, who declared if the law did not interfere they would. Spencer argued his own case, quoting scripture to sustain his actions. Mrs. Spencer admitted she believed that, according to the Bible, her husband was in duty bound to whip her, but pleaded that he had gone beyond the limit. On one occasion, she testified, Spencer whipped her because she could not see a squirrel in a tree, and at another time because she would not wash a buggy that they might drive to church, where he was to sing in the choir.

Hot Wave Here to Stay.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Sweating in a maximum temperature of 93 degrees, and with no prospect of relief in sight, Chicago and the central west faces every prospect of making a record of protracted hot weather not equaled in ten years. In 1892 there were five days—July 23 to 27 inclusive—during which the temperature ranged from 91 to 94 degrees. The weather office records for two years previous show no like term. Four died of sunstroke in Chicago Tuesday and there were forty-two prostrations. Many horses died in harness.

Dies for a Glass of Beer.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 8.—John Zander, a molder at the Detroit stove works, dropped dead while running a foot race with Otto Hischke. Zander bet Hischke a glass of beer that he could beat him running a block. The challenge was accepted. When they got to the end of the course Zander suddenly reeled and fell against the wall. He was dead before a doctor arrived. Zander was 32 years of age and leaves a widow and four children.

Rooney Forces Carkeek to Quit.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 9.—Jack Rooney, the giant gripman of Chicago, defeated Pack Carkeek of Wisconsin in a wrestling match, Graeco-Roman style, for the championship of the world and a $500 stake. The match called for the best two in three falls. Only one bout was wrestled, Rooney gaining the fall on a half Nelson in twenty minutes.

Spain Wants Statue Back.

Madrid, Aug. 8.—The authorities at San Sebastian, where the Spanish court is spending the summer, have obtained a promise from the government that it will ask the United States government to send back the statue of Miguel de Legaspi, the Spanish conqueror of the Philippines. The statue was the work of the Spanish sculptor, Querol. It was sent out to the Philippines shortly before the war and is now lying neglected at Manila. Premier Silvela expressed himself as confident that the application to the Washington government would be given friendly consideration, and that the statue would be brought back to Spain, and placed in San Sebastian, the capital of Guipuzcoa, Legaspi's native province.

Records Wanted in Court.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 8.—The prosecution in the Powers case was granted a subpoena duces tecum on State Auditor Coulter, requiring him to bring his records into court. This is done to contradict the testimony of ex-Auditor Sam Stone, who testified that he discharged W. H. Culton in December, and charged him with stealing $1,000. The prosecution expects to show by the record that Culton was paid his salary in both December and January, and by other witnesses to prove that since that date Stone recommended Culton to various people as being entirely trustworthy.

Kills One; Wounds Another.

Newport, Ky., Aug. 8.—John W. Jolly of Newport shot and killed Lottie Kleekamp, his wife's sister, at the home of their parents, Ninth and Overton streets. Jolly and his wife had recently been living in Hamilton, where, owing to domestic disagreements, Mrs. Jolly left her husband and returned to her father's home.

Where Yellow Fever Rages.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 8.—United States Consul Thompson, at Progreso, Mex., informs the state department that yellow fever seems to be on the increase there and is virulent at Heredia, capital of Yucatan.

Queer Money.

The largest and most cumbersome form of money is found in Central Africa, where the natives use a cross-shaped ingot of copper ore over ten inches long. It is heavy enough to be a formidable weapon.

Know of Bresci's Plans.

Rome, Aug. 8.—The brother and brother-in-law of Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert of Italy, have been detained by the police on the charge that they had foreknowledge of the murderer's intention. The former says Bresci frequently practiced with a revolver.

Full Amnesty Declared.

Lima, Peru (via Galveston, Texas), Aug. 8.—Congress has declared full amnesty for all political offenders.

ITALY'S NEW SOVEREIGN

Characteristics of Victor Emmanuel, Humbert's Only Child.

NICKNAMED THE LITTLE PRINCE.

So Called When a Child, and the Term Denoted Affection as Much as Description—Story of His Attachment to His Mother—His Beautiful Queen Elena.

Victor Emmanuel III, who, as his only child, succeeds King Humbert I as king of Italy, is now in his thirty-first year, having been born Nov. 11, 1890. He is slight and short of stature, though not so short as is generally believed, for the nickname "Il Principe" ("the Little Prince") was given to him when he was a child and denoted affection as much as description, says the New York Sun. As a matter of fact, he was taller than his father and mother, but did not have the broad shoulders that lent impressiveness to the figures of his parents when they were seated or on horseback. What detracts from the appearance of the new king are the abnormally short legs, that seem characteristic of his branch of the family. They were very noticeable in his father, King Humbert, and his mother, Queen Margherita, and in his grandfather, King Victor Emmanuel II.

The new king is not bad looking, but his blondish hair and light blue eyes made him seem insignificant by the side of his strikingly strong faced father and mother, with their masses of black hair and their magnificent eyes. King Humbert's ocheloni—his big eyes that seemed to look through and through you—were known from one end of Italy to the other. After the crown prince's marriage there was another unflattering contrast with the splendid figure of his Montenegrin bride.

As a child he was very delicate and the greatest care had to be taken of his health. His mother's devotion to him and his attachment to her are well known. A story has often been told of the necklace of pearls that Queen Margherita wears constantly. She found out that the little prince was not spending his pocket money and fearing that he was developing stingy habits scolded him. Later she found that he had bought the necklace for her, but would not take it until he had paid for it, pearl by pearl, out of his allowance. The story has been told of a coral bead necklace as well, but those who have seen the necklace say that it is of pearls, which in Italian are margherite, and, besides, even a small crown prince's allowance would not put a coral necklace out of his reach.

The crown prince's health was not allowed to interfere with his studies; he was, moreover, naturally inclined to books and he has the reputation of being one of the best informed princes in Europe. He has made a hobby of collecting coins, and numismatics is a pursuit that requires a good deal of learning. From early childhood, however, he showed a strong sense of his position, which kept back the people around him, and an ambition to do everything that pertained to his office, however distasteful. He insisted on doing his full duty as a soldier, and, in spite of discussion from many sides, has performed the duties of the several ranks to which he has been promoted. Up to the end of last year he was lieutenant general in command of the Tenth division, stationed at Naples. As a commanding officer he has the reputation of being a strict disciplinarian and is none too popular among the officers, though the soldiers like him.

It is also pretty generally believed that he is set in his ways and obstinate at times and that no one can move him when he has once made up his mind. This is a dangerous quality in a country like Italy, where politics more than anywhere else requires concessions and compromises. It is possible, however, that King Victor Emmanuel III will show himself to be a different man in public life from the Prince of Naples, just as his father, King Humbert, when he came to the throne, disappointed the gloomy anticipations of those who generalized from his youthful excesses.

Personally very little scandal attaches to the new king. For this his delicate health accounts in part, for he has always been keenly awake to the necessity that he should live to carry on his father's work. Courts nowadays are not much different from what they were in past centuries, though it is no longer correct form to dwell on their intrigues, and plenty of temptations were put in the way of the Italian crown prince. It is very likely that he has not resisted them all, but at any rate no great amount of scandal has been attached to his name.

Four years ago, after many matrimonial pilgrimages to the various courts of Europe, where the Catholic princesses would not have him for fear of getting into trouble with the pope, and where Protestant princesses were out of the question, he found a wife in the handsome daughter of Prince Nikita of Montenegro, who is now Queen Elena of Italy. She was willing to give up her Greek Orthodox faith for the Roman Catholic for the sake of a throne. Since their marriage they have kept a good deal to themselves. The crown princess did not seem to like the atmosphere of the Italian court. Very little is known of her except that she is a beautiful woman and well educated. They have had no children, so far, and the heir apparent to the Italian throne is now the king's first cousin, Emanuele, duke of Aosta, who is married to the Duke of Orleans' sister.

NOTIFY BRYAN AND STEVENSON

mally notified Mr. Stevenson, after which the candidate for vice president spoke briefly. The main issues, he said, were imperialism, and trusts, and concluded his address as follows:

Mr. Stevenson's Speech.

We are told that our republic is now to become "a world power." In the highest sense, with the declaration of independence as its corner stone—it has been in all its past a world power. It has been the lofty ideal to all liberty-loving people; the model for all builders of republics for more than a century. In the sense used by the imperialists the expression is one of terrible significance. It necessitates the methods and equipments of monarchies. It means the creation of and maintenance by our republic of standing armies equal to those of the world powers of Europe. At no less cost can we hold place as a world power. Study existing conditions in European nations, and know what all this means to us. It means taxation to the verge of despair. It means, as has been truly said that "every laborer must carry an armed soldier upon his back as he goes to his daily toil." All history teaches that the corner stone of imperialism is the force of the standing army.

In the great struggle now upon us, we invoke the co-operation of all who revere the memory of our fathers, and to whom this declaration is not an empty parchment—but the enduring chart of our liberties. Upon the supreme issue now in the forefront—and to the end that republican government be perpetuated—we appeal to the sober judgment and patriotism of the American people.

Harrison to Be Chairman

The meeting in Tomlinson hall tonight will be called to order by Parks M. Martin, chairman of the democratic state committee. He will introduce Mayor Carter Harrison of Chicago who will act as permanent chairman. Addresses will be delivered by Mayor Harrison, Mr. Bryan, Mr. Stevenson, Webster Davis and others. If the crowd should warrant it there will be an overflow meeting in Monument place.

This forenoon there were a good many conferences and formal meetings for the consideration of questions pertaining to the coming campaign.

Towne Has Withdrawn.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 8.—In a letter to P. M. Ringdale, chairman, and the members of the committee of notification of candidate for vice president of the people's party, Charles A. Towne has declined the nomination tendered him by the populist national convention at Sioux Falls.

It is believed the populist committee empowered to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Towne's withdrawal will immediately endorse Adlai E. Stevenson for vice president on the ticket with Bryan.

BARRETT AND LI HUNG.

Viceroy's Compliments to the Minister and Sarcasm For a Missionary.

In seven years' residence in the orient John Barrett, ex-United States minister to Siam, formed a personal acquaintance with Li Hung Chang. In discussing the ability of the viceroy to clear up the present trouble in China Mr. Barrett told the following story of his first meeting with Li to a party of friends at the Waldorf-Astoria the other evening, says the New York Tribune:

"On my first leave of absence after reaching my post in Siam I made a trip to China for the purpose of studying the great empire. On my way to Peking I tarried at Tien-tsin to call on the famous viceroy. An English friend who was at that time acting as Li's private secretary made all the arrangements for me to visit him at his yamen. I was advised to take an interpreter and selected one of the oldest missionaries at Tien-tsin, a man of 70 years, who had spent the best part of his life in China. I was pleased at securing the services of such a distinguished looking interpreter. It was not until afterward that I learned that my missionary had been in trouble with Li, and they hated each other righteously.

"After arriving at the yamen we did not have to wait long for Li. He received me with the utmost friendliness and gave the missionary a perfunctory sort of greeting. He asked me about my past life after the true Chinese fashion and went into my plans for the future. He wanted to know what he could do for my welfare and offered to assist me in reaching Peking.

"Now, in China they have a reverse method of paying compliments. Here we tell a man that he does not look his years, but over there the highest compliment that can be paid a young man is to say that he looks to be 50 or 60. This was one of the Chinese customs which I did not know at that time.

"In bringing our interview to a close Li turned to his secretary and said: "Tell the distinguished minister from the United States that he appears to me to be a man of very mature years."

"Turning toward the gray haired missionary, a man able to be my father, he said, with a sweep of his hand: "And this gentleman who is with the distinguished minister, is he the minister's son?"

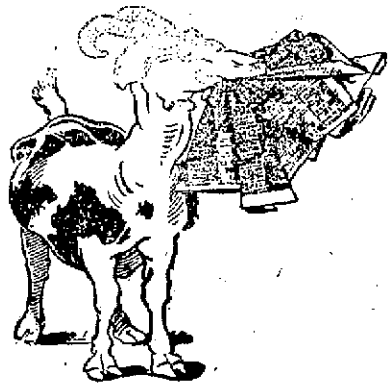

"It was the name of clever sarcasm, and the missionary felt the insult deeply. He got very red and seemed unable to sit still.

"After Li left us the secretary brought out some refreshments. He poured out two glasses of whisky and soda and, knowing that the missionary never drank intoxicants, fixed a glass of plain soda for him. In his excitement the missionary picked up my whisky and drained it at a gulp. For a year his fellow missionaries in Tien-tsin joked him about it, and he was forced to admit that he had been so flustered by Li's sarcasm that he had not noticed the difference."
